RIVER GUARD AND RANGER KILLED

Joe Sitters and E. D. Hulén Shot By Mexican Smugglers; Bodies Robbed.

Marfa, Texas, May 26.—A Mexican band of smugglers, who have been making since the reported battle between river guards and Mexican smugglers on May 24, were found dead seven miles north of Pilares with their heads beaten to a pulp and their bodies robbed.

The battle was between the state officers, customs officers and 25 Mexican smugglers. Customs Inspector Charles Craighead and rangers Cummings and Trullinger narrowly escaped with their lives. Inspector Sitters' horse was killed and his body was terribly beaten after being robbed.

The Mexican band is said to have been in command of "Chico" Conner. They are believed to have escaped across the river. On February 16, 1912, Jack Howard was killed by the same band of Mexicans.

Capt. John Hughes, of the Texas rangers, under whom Sitters served for a number of years, received a telegram at his ranch near Ysleta, Wednesday morning, saying that Sitters had been killed and his body buried in Valiente. Capt. Hughes says Sitters, who joined his command in 1910, was one of the best men he had ever known and was one of the men who trailed and arrested the train robbers at Ramona siding on the G. H. many years ago, Capt. Hughes says.

DEAD RANGER A BROTHER OF FORMER ADJUTANT GENERAL

Austin, Tex., May 26.—State ranger E. B. Hulén, who was killed by Mexicans near Pilares, was a brother of former adjutant general John A. Hulén, of Houston, who has wired to have the body shipped to Greenville for burial.

Gen. Hutchings also received a message from Sheriff J. J. Allen, of Terrell county, offering assistance, and after conferring with governor Ferguson, it was decided to withhold acceptance of the offer until additional particulars are received. Capt. Monroe Fox is now enroute to Marfa.

RESISTS ARREST AND IS KILLED

Paul Jones Fires at Policeman Litchfield and Is Shot In His Own Yard.

As a result of a pistol duel with policeman C. M. Litchfield at his home, 2311 Frutas street, about 11 o'clock Tuesday night, Paul Jones, aged 60 years, was shot and mortally wounded. Shortly after midnight the wounded man died at Providence hospital. A charge of murder was entered against Litchfield in Justice J. M. Deaver's court Wednesday morning.

Litchfield was called to the Jones home by a telephone message from neighbors to quell a quarrel said to be in progress. He dismounted at the gate, entered the yard and began talking to Jones. Jones is said to have declared that he would not get to town with the officer. Litchfield, it is said, declared that no one had told him he had to go to town. He then said he was going into the house. To this, Mrs. Jones remonstrated, and the policeman then reached out and took Jones by the arm. As he did so Jones is said to have pulled a revolver from his pocket and to have struck the officer on the cheek. The blow stunned Litchfield and as he was retaining his balance and drawing his own pistol, Jones is said to have fired two shots, each of which went wild. Litchfield returned the first, shooting three times, and then jumped over the fence. The shots took effect and Jones sank to the ground at the same time firing his revolver. He was then armed by his wife, who helped him to his feet and into the house.

Jones was wounded in the right chest, the ball passing through the body, and two bullets also entered the stomach. An arm was also wounded by one of the shots. He was rushed at once to the hospital, where every effort was made to save his life. Death came shortly after midnight, while he was on the operating table, and coroner J. M. Litchfield went from the scene of the shooting to the police station, where his wounded check was examined. He was then taken to the hospital, where he was held until police captain Lee Hall said that he did not blame the officer for shooting him, as it was a case of self defense.

Wednesday afternoon the examination of policeman Litchfield began in Justice Deaver's court.

had championed. After the vote the governor said:

"I regret that the bill did not pass. I am not sore or discouraged. The people will speak in due time and the politician will run to cover. One of the issues to be decided in the next campaign will be, 'Shall we have an insurance company money trust in Texas?'"

The roll call on the adoption of the unfavorable committee report was:

Ayes—Brewster, Conner, Cowell, Darwin, Hudspeth, Johnson, Lattimore, McGregor, Pugh, Sumner, Townsend, Smith, Sutter, Townsend, Westbrook and Wiley—16.

Noes—Austin, Bailey of Dewitt, Bee, Clark, Gilmore, Harris, Kinn, McCollum, Morrow and Parr—31.

Failed—Bailey of Harris, voting no, with Henderson, Aye, and McNeel, voting aye, with Hall, no—1.

Bills Passed in Senate.

The senate has passed finally Thursday's bill changing the time for holding district court in the 23d district; the Bailey of Harris bill to prevent and punish collusion between landlord and tenant to the detriment of creditors; and the bill by Hall placing dock and terminal companies under the jurisdiction of the railroad commission as to issuances of stocks and bonds.

NICKEL CAR AND ROADSTER COLLIDE; BOTH DAMAGED

In a head-on collision between a Maxwell nickel car bearing the number 264 and registered in the name of J. A. Vickner, and a Detroit roadster, owned and driven by B. H. Nealey, of the Wells-Fargo express service, on Montana street, near Cotton avenue Tuesday evening, the two cars sustained damage to the extent of about $225.

Mr. Nealey stated to The Herald, Wednesday, that he was driving on and right side of the street, close to the curb, when the Maxwell, going at high speed, endeavored to go around two other cars and hit the rear of his car.

One wheel of the Detroit car was smashed, the fender broken off, the front axle sprung and some damage done to the engine. Mr. Nealey estimates the damage at between $100 and $125. The Maxwell driver gave his name as Sanders. His car was also considerably damaged, the engine being damaged, the front axle broken and a fender smashed.

BRITISH LOSSES 2000.

COALITION CABINET IS NAMED; Churchill Loses Admir- alty Portfolio.

Coalition Cabinet Is Named;
Churchill Loses Admiralty Portfolio.

London, Eng., May 26.—The approval of King George today makes the coalition government, as first announced, an accomplished fact, and it is generally accepted that the coalition government will be formed. The coalition government shows no great enthusiasm over this compromise for the usual party cabinet, for there is no doubt whether the members will work well together.

The new cabinet list follows:

Prime minister and first lord of the treasury, Herbert Asquith.
Secretary of state for war, Lord Kitchener.
Secretary for India, J. Austin Chamberlain.
Secretary of state for foreign affairs, Sir Edward Grey.
Minister without portfolio, lord Lansdowne.
Lord high chancellor, Sir Stanley O. Buckmaster.
Lord president of the council, lord Curzon.
Lord privy seal, lord Curzon of Kedleston.
Chancellor of the exchequer, Reginald McKinnon.
Secretary of state for home affairs, Sir John A. Simon.
Secretary of state of the colonies, Andrew Bonar Law.
Minister of munitions, David Lloyd-George.
First lord of the admiralty, Arthur J. Balfour.
President of the board of trade, Walter Runciman.
Minister of the local government board, Walter Hume Long.
Chancellor of the duchy of Lancaster, Winston Spencer Churchill.
Chief secretary for Ireland, Augustin Birrell.
Secretary for Scotland, Thomas McKinnon Wood.
Minister of the board of agriculture, lord Selborne.
First commissioner of works, Lewis Harcourt.
President of the board of education, Arthur Henderson.

The cabinet is composed of 12 Liberals, eight Conservatives, one Laborer, Arthur Henderson, and one non-party member, the old cabinet remain in office. Of these, Mr. Asquith, Sir Edward Grey, and Kitchener, Mr. Runciman, lord Curzon, and Mr. Wood, retain their old portfolios.

The promotion of Sir Stanley Buckmaster, whose greatest activities during the war have been with the management of the official press bureau, to the high honor of lord chancellor, and the acceptance by Winston Churchill, formerly head of the admiralty, of the merely nominal duties of the duchy of Lancaster, are two distinct surprises.

Haldane Drops Out.

The most prominent figure who retires from public life is viscount Haldane. His affiliations with Germany, and his acceptance of the position of head of the admiralty, have made his retirement as inevitable as prince Henry of Battenberg's retirement some time ago from the admiralty for the same reason.

Viscount Haldane received an expression of the government's confidence by the bestowal of the Order of Merit upon him.

The retention of lord Kitchener as head of the army, while David Lloyd-George, with the support of the military ministry of munitions, relieves him of the responsibility of managing the supply department, and the acceptance by Winston Churchill of the merely nominal duties of the duchy of Lancaster, are two distinct surprises.

TWO NOMINAL POSITIONS.

The marquis of Lansdowne, whose health forbids hard work, becomes a member of the cabinet without duties except participating in its councils, and Mr. Churchill's position is virtually the same. His withdrawal to accept a subordinate position and work for the success of the new government is likely to make him popular with the country and aid his future political career.

Lloyd-George and Mr. Henderson will be especially charged with the task of rallying the workingmen to the government's support, and much is expected of the former chancellor in organizing the country's industries.

mathe the total Villa force as being between 20,000 and 25,000 men.

BANDS OF REBELS MENACE VERACRUZ

Veracruz, Texas, May 26.—Bands of revolutionists are daily drawing in closer to Veracruz, Mexico, and are shooting at and looting trains running into and out of the city, according to word received from Veracruz Tuesday. The city's military patrols have been increased.

Meanwhile preparations have been made for a possible departure of Gen. Carranza to a haven of safety on the island of San Juan de Ulloa, in the harbor of Veracruz. For months he has occupied quarters in the lighthouse on the mainland, 200 yards from a Mexican transport. He seldom has ventured from the lighthouse.

Stories of distressing conditions in the interior of Mexico are brought to Veracruz. Jalisco crowds of women recently filled the plaza and after being that the revolution be stopped, paraded the streets clamoring for food. Foreigners have been obliged to relieve the suffering.

Virtually no crops will be gathered this year, and little of the food imported to Veracruz is permitted to reach the interior.

RIOTS AT MONTEREY FOLLOW OCCUPATION

Laredo, Texas, May 26.—Serious rioting occurred at Monterey, Mexico, following the occupation of the city by Carranza forces, according to official reports received here Tuesday. The city was finally restored, it is said, after a new city government and civilian police force had been established.

Carranza troops have now occupied the town, and while the city is quiet, lack of food is said to be creating a menacing situation. During the rioting, several houses and private homes were looted, but no mention was made of any casualties.

VILLA TROOPS ENTERED U. S., KILLED AMERICAN

San Antonio, Texas, May 26.—A report to the war department relative to the killing recently of Pablo Jimenez, a naturalized American, places the responsibility upon a detail of eight Villa soldiers commanded by a Capt. Jimenez.

It is claimed in the report that the Villa troops crossed the American border near Camadero, Texas, opposite Pilares, Mexico, and killed Jimenez. Less than three weeks ago another American citizen was reported killed by Carranza soldiers near El Tigre, Texas.

BULLETS FELL IN U. S. AS CARRANZAS CELEBRATE

Douglas, Ariz., May 26.—Garranzistas in Agua Prieta celebrated Tuesday in honor of the reported victory by Gen. Carranza over Gen. Villa, and in the accompanying shooting a number of bullets fell in American territory.

James Laskey, an American negro, reported to the military authorities that a bullet struck his home a few feet from where his wife was standing. During the celebration, it was reported, two women were attacked and an American, Frank Gardner, was wounded and robbed.

CONDITION OF MAN, WHOSE FEET CUT OFF, IMPROVING

The condition of Elliott Polk, the aged man who was run over by a switch engine near the union station last Thursday, was reported as improved Wednesday morning.

Polk is said by the attending physicians to be mentally unbalanced. Police officers in Los Angeles have been making inquiries regarding the injured man and stated in their telegram that his description fit that of Alexander P. Orr, wanted in Los Angeles in connection with the death of his wife.

TODAY'S AMUSEMENTS.

"THE JUGGERNAUT," ALHAMBRA.
The feature picture, "The Juggernaut," at the Alhambra, made everyone "sit up and take notice" yesterday. This great picture will be at the Alhambra today and tomorrow in order to give everybody a chance to see it.

This picture, woven around a splendid story and presented with an excellent cast, including Marie Williams, Anita Stewart and William Dunn, created a sensation by reason of its virility and startling situations. The big railroad wreck, the climax of the picture, is undoubtedly the most daring and realistic scene ever put into a photograph. The big engine with three coaches dashes onto the water, and the whole train plunges down into the water below. In the picture, a close-up view of this scene is given, and it appears as if the train was plunging head first into the water. It is a moment of breathless suspense and then a sense of relief when you realize that you are safe and sound in your seat and not in the path of the train—Adv.

"THE WILD ENGINE" TODAY.
The Wild Engine, from the "Hazardous" series, featuring Miss "Polon Holmes" chasing a runaway engine with a motorcycle and plunging through an open draw into the river is the offering at the Bijou today.

"The Spy's Sister," a one-reel film of real drama, also "The Vanishing Vault," a Vitaphone comedy, featuring Billy Quirk, Charles Eldridge and Constance Talmage, will also be shown.

Friday and Saturday, "Charlie Chaplin" will be seen in his latest comedy, "By the Sea."

Note—Owing to delay on the part of the Fox Film corporation, the feature, "The Girl I Left Behind Me," will not be shown today as advertised. The management will announce dates for its showing at the Bijou later—Adv.

"A FOOL THERE WAS" TODAY.
"A Fool There Was" will be at the Unique today and tomorrow. This picture has been brought back because the Unique theater could not accommodate one-half the people who wanted to see it when here a month ago. "A Fool There Was" is the most fascinating picture ever brought to El Paso, and features Theda Bara and Edward José. The play, by Porter Emerson Browne, and is adapted from Rudyard Kipling's "Vampire."

The shows for this production, which is in six parts, at 12 m., 1:30, 3:00, 4:30, 6:00, 7:30 and 9:00 p. m. Attend the matinee. Admission is 25 cents.—Advertisement.

"THE WOMAN WHO DARED."
The Wigwam today will show "The Woman Who Dared," a sensational multiple reel feature, in which Francesca Bertini, the beautiful Italian actress, is starred. This feature will be shown today at the Bijou.

Tomorrow, Pat Rooney and Marion Bent, the Orpheum circuit stars, will be seen in a Lubin comedy, "The Busy Bell Boy." In this they will introduce their clever stage dances and the dances of modern society. If you want to see some real dances, see this clever couple. Regular prices will be charged.—Advertisement.

R. E. SEAY TO CONTINUE WITH HIGH SCHOOL WORK

R. E. Seay will continue in charge of the commercial department of the high school for the next year. R. E. King has resigned from this department and his place will be taken by J. E. Gilkey.

But Mr. Seay will be retained at the head of the department, as his work has been highly satisfactory during the past year, the school officials declare.

COMPANY K SMOKER AT COURTHOUSE TONIGHT

A smoker will be given at the armory of company K, Texas national guard, in the courthouse this evening. Talks will be made on tactics by Maj. Herbert F. Stevenson and Maj. N. Lapowski. All of the members of company K will attend.

DINNER FOR TENNIS MEN TO BE AT COUNTRY CLUB

Because the play will be at the Country club, the dinner to the visiting tennis players will be given at the Country club dining room Thursday evening at 9 o'clock. All of the 192 players in the tournament will be present.
